UNINTENTIONAL DELAYED NOTICE OF FOREIGN

Commissioner:

Applicant filed the above-identified application on June 15, 2001 along with a Request and Certification Under 35 U.S.C. 122(b)(2)(B)(i) requesting non-publication. Thereafter, applicant changed its mind about foreign filing and on June 13, 2002 filed International Application No. PCT/US02/18913. Concurrently herewith, applicant is filing a Request to Rescind Previous Nonpublication Request 35 U.S.C. 122(b)(2)(B)(ii). Applicant understands that such a Request to Rescind may be filed at any time. The U.S. application has not yet been published. The corresponding International application was published on December 15, 2002.

At the time of foreign filing, applicant believed, through its attorney, that the filing of the PCT application designating the U.S.

Application No. 10/084,295 and being submitted to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office as the Receiving Office was sufficient notice of the International application filing as required by 35 U.S.C. 122(b)(2)(B)(iii). Thus, there was no intent not to provide notice nor to delay notice.

However, recently, on April 11, 2003, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office issued a Notice raising questions about the procedure for providing notice of foreign filing. As noted above, Applicant believed that such notice was provided. Should that notice not be considered sufficient, this delayed notice was unintentionally delayed and therefore the application should not be regarded as abandoned. Should the Office decide that, despite the unintentional nature of any delay, the application should be regarded as abandoned subject to the unintentional nature of the delay being shown in a Petition to Revive, then applicant asks, in the alternative, that the enclosed Petition to Revive be considered.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees under 37 CFR 1.16 and 1.17 which may be required during the entire pendency of the application to Deposit Account No. 03-1728. Please show our docket number with any charge or credit to our Deposit Account.

Respectfully submitted,
